

Come Follow Me - New Testament
Week 12: Mar 20-26 ~ Matthew 13; Luke 8;13

Monday - Read the introduction for this week's CFM.

FHE - Match the verses in Matthew 13:3-8 with the verses 18-23 of the same chapter. You might want to consider having an object lesson you do while you read these verses. Have a seed, a fan, a pile of rocks, thorny stems from your garden, and a pot of soil. Show what happens to the seed in each of those piles/places when the "wind"/fan comes. What can you do to cultivate "good ground" in yourself? What might be some "thorns" that keep you from truly hearing and following God's word? How can you overcome these "thorns"?

Tuesday - Read the parable in Luke 13:6-9. What is the "fruit" that the Lord seeks from us? How do we nourish our ground so we will "bear fruit"? Watch "The Mustard Seed" (linked) and discuss. See below for some pics that may help your discussion. You may also enjoy reading some additional facts on mustard trees HERE.

Wednesday - Listen to "Parable of the Sower" by Dallin H Oaks (linked) and discuss.

Thursday - Read Matthew 13:24-30, 36-43. Read and discuss "The righteous must grow among the wicked until the end of the world" in the CFM manual. How do we avoid getting too entangled with the tares? How can we make sure to frequently check your priorities and make sure they align His will?

Friday - Listen to "Certain Women" by Linda K. Burton (linked) and discuss.

Sunday - Have you ever had a time in your life when you feel like you can't "lift [yourself] up"? Do you know someone else who has felt like this before? How can we help? How can we ask for help? Who should we ask? How does the Savior "loose" us from infirmities? Watch The Chosen.
